Señákw Cultural Advisory Panel

Dear Señákw Cultural Advisory Panel,

I'm excited to apply for the Squamish Nation Art Opportunity to create a [insert art description. ie: special woven blanket] for the Señákw Development Project.

Why I'm Excited:

I really care about our Squamish Nation culture, and this project is a chance for me to share that through art. I get my inspiration from [insert your source of inspiration], and I want to show that in my design.

Connecting with Project Goals:

I think my design fits well with what the Señákw Development Project wants to achieve. I want my work to help people in our community learn more about our traditions and where we come from.

About Me:

I've been doing art for [X years], and I've had the chance to [mention any noteworthy things that you have created or artists you have looked up to or worked with]. My art style is all about [describe your art style], and I love showcasing Coast Salish design in my work.

Ready to Work Together:

I'm ready to work closely with the Squamish Nation and the Project design team. I promise to meet all the deadlines, share my ideas, and make sure the art I create is made and installed just right.

Wrapping Up:

Being part of this big project is important to me. I hope my art can add something special to the Señákw Development. Thank you for looking at my application.

Sincerely,

[Artist's Full Name]
